

Adolf Fredrik's Girls' Choir and The Royal Wedding in Stockholm, 19 June 2010

Adolf Fredrik's Girls' Choir has been granted the honor of singing at the Stockholm Cathedral "Storkyrkan" on the occasion of the royal wedding between Crown Princess Victoria and Mr. Daniel Westling, on Saturday 19 June 2010. Adolf Fredrik's Girls' Choir will be singing as the wedding guests and bridal couple arrive at Storkyrkan, from 2:45 to 3:30 p.m.

"Their very special Swedish choral sound will resound, bright and cheerful as it ought to on such a grand occasion," said Bo Johansson, the founder and conductor of the choir.

In anticipation of the royal wedding, a CD commissioned by the Swedish Royal court is also being recorded. It will include some of the songs sung by the choir, as well as the wedding music specially composed for the occasion by Karin Rehnqvist, besides composer-in-residence of the choir, along with all the other festive music that will be part of this ceremonious wedding.

